

My News

Date: 02.07 The School's Best News

Written by: Sophia Free

Headline Simon loses his lucky bloomers!

Simon went to a swimming pool with his family. They got changed in a changing room. Simon didn't realise he dropped his bloomers. They had so much fun in the blue sparkling water. Simon and his family went back to the changing room to get changed. Simon realised his bloomers were gone! He told his family they said "we'll get you new ones". The guys next to the changing room had taken them to Kent. When the guys got to Kent it was night so they had gone to bed.

The next day they put the bloomers in a shop, meanwhile Simon and his family went to Kent shopping. Everyone had seen the bloomers in Morrisons, so Simon and his family they quickly ran into it before someone else had bought it. They went home. This day it was Christmas

eve. The next day was Christmas they had friends round Simon opened his present he finished opening it. It was a bear. It was as wearing bloomers, the bloomers that Simon owned.

