

A large, hand-drawn outline of a glass jar with a wide mouth and a slightly flared rim. The jar is intended to be a 'Memory Jar'. The title 'Memory Jar' is written in a large, bold, sans-serif font across the upper part of the jar's body. Below the title, there are 15 horizontal lines for writing, spaced evenly down the jar. The lines are thin and black. The jar's outline is thick and black, with a slightly irregular, hand-drawn feel.
