

Packing for Space

Imagine you have a chance to spend 3 months on the International Space Station. What would you pack? Think carefully about what you will need, the weight and any potential problems with using the items. Write or draw your packing list in the suitcase below.

