

Honesty

Honesty is important. It means that people can rely on us as we have integrity. Honesty is the basis of a trusting relationship with our friends and family. It is important to tell the truth even if we know that we have made a wrong choice about something. It is important to tell the truth even if we are worried about the consequences. Honesty is the best policy!

Task: Draw a picture using speech bubbles of someone telling the truth.

It is important to be honest because...
