

Hardworking

It is important to always try our very best in everything we do. We know that hard work helps us reach our goals. It teaches us discipline, dedication and determination. It is important that we recognise other people's hard work too.

Task: Design a certificate to congratulate someone for their hard work.

Remember to write what they have done.

It is important to be hardworking because...
